ABOUT US

Teach, Train, and Send Bible Training Institute (TTS) is non-profit interdenominational, multi-ethnic, and multi-national Christian organization created to serve the church of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We provide the highest quality Biblical studies to meet your educational needs. We serve lay Christian workers and both full and part-time licensed and ordained ministers. Our purpose is to encourage spiritual growth, the development of Christian character and intellectual skills that God's servants may become better soul winners and soldiers of the cross, to impact society for God. We are committed to assisting active Christians who have a desire to broaden their usefulness to the Lord and to become more effective in their calling by license and ordaining those who have the desire. Also, as a Christian educational center, our mission is to enlighten and teach lay workers as well as provide continuing ministerial training for pastors and evangelists. The aim of TTS is to teach others to be superior leaders so they can in turn train others. We will train, as 2 Timothy 2:2 states, "faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."

We specialize in Christian and ministerial training. We stand firmly on the uncompromising Word of God, and therefore, believe in holy living and miracles. We believe in the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit, and that they are for us today. We offer an opportunity for greater success and stepping stone to fulfill your God-given goals in life.

The vision of TTS is to instill professional scholars with spiritual integrity; to link theology with practical service, and to balance learning with living. Our courses are designed to encourage students to grow in their knowledge of God, His Word, and His will for their lives. We encourage students to develop a deeper personal relationship with Christ while encouraging them to discover their purpose in the body of Christ. We are committed to fostering and developing responsible Christians who will make a positive impact in their local churches and communities.

We 're building strong local churches full of powerful praying saints.

EXPLANATION ABOUT ACCREDITATION

Over the years, the word "accreditation" as used by those involved in higher education has acquired various interpretations, but essentially it indicates that some outside responsible body of educators have examined a school and found it to be doctrinally, academically, and financially reliable, and has certified that it meets their ethical standards. The purpose is to simply assure the public that the school is a reputable establishment.

What ordination is to a minister, accreditation is to a school. Therefore, most faculty and degree students feel that accreditation is very important, although it is not legally required. It is a voluntary process. On the other hand, there are some who discount a Christian school and reject their Accrediting Association, too, unless it is linked up with the U.S.A. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, launching a campaign to impose their opinion upon the rest of the academic world. But, common understanding and every day usage determine the definition of any word. So to be accredited still means that an impartial group of professional scholars has investigated an institution and has approved of its standards of operation.

There is no such thing as Federal or State accreditation of a Bible school, for civil government has not authority to regulate religious training or what certificate we issue for it. This is an issue of separation of church and state, as Jesus said, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God, the things that are God's." Mark 12:17.

Civil authorities must never officially endorse or disapprove directly or indirectly the beliefs and practices of churches or their Bible Schools. A casual survey of Church history shows that such linkage with Caesar eventually leads to infringement upon conscience, bondage, and corruption. Therefore, to be accredited by any agency, which in turn is supervised by the U.S.A. Department of H.E.W., would to some degree be a compromise of the separation principle and constitute "friendship with the world" condemned as "adultery" by James 4:4.
